Danger Point

Civil revolt in Hungary and restlessness in Poland are symptoms of a condition that is killing the Communist conspiracy.

The condition is not confined to Hungary and Poland, nor to the satellite countries. Russians, themselves, are in a mood to challenge the right of Communist dictators to prolong an oppressive rule that has brought nothing but suffering and danger.

This is the danger point in the surging forces of the revolution and counter-revolution that have swept back and forth over Russia and its neighbors in Europe and Asia for a generation.

As Secretary of State Dulles has warned, the upheaval that breaks the hold of the Communist conspiracy will drive the conspirators to desperation.

In their attempt to preserve political power, they may resort to the last desperate recourse of all hard-pressed dictators — a military diversion.

Communism is no longer a creed. It can win no converts. The Red army is its last hope. Even the glimmering hope of Titoism has been blacked out by the revelation that it is not just the Kremlin that is hated but the whole philosophy of authoritarianism.

The "masses" are as resentful of tyranny in the name of Communism as they were of tyranny in the name of czarism — or in any other name.

The tyrants are cornered. They are fighting with their backs to the wall. Their victims never were closer to emancipation. But the world never was closer to the violence which tyrants try to unleash before they lose their power.

Suspicion Of Merger

The U. S. Department of Justice has a new device in its legal arsenal — suspicion of merger.

It is being pointed at Bethlehem Steel Corp. and Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., whose long-delayed merger is about to take place, according to official announcements.

Since this merger has been in the works during most of the lifetimes of the lawyers who will handle the details, it must be assumed they have their brief cases stuffed with more familiar devices for fighting legal battles.

The immediate point of law to be threshed out is whether or not the Department of Justice can establish "suspicion of merger" as a constitutional grounds for stopping something that might happen.

This looks like the quandary tackled by the Supreme Court a long time ago in deciding that sedition did not come into existence as a cause for preventive action until there was a "clear and present danger."

How can it be established as legal evidence that antitrust laws have been violated until there has been a record of business operations?

When the Department of Justice issued an informal advisory opinion a year ago last September that the proposed merger would violate antitrust laws, no details were given. No details are given now — only a warning that if Bethlehem and Youngstown Sheet & Tube go ahead with their plans they will be haled into court.

They knew this in advance. It must be assumed, therefore, that their legalists think they have enough material in their brief cases to hold the sharpshooters of the U. S. Department of Justice at bay indefinitely. The latter have nothing in their brief cases at all, except a strange device labeled "suspicion of merger."

Academic A-Bomb

A bid for state money aid by private colleges and universities in New York state will be spotted by educators as an academic A-bomb.

In New York state, as in all populous states, the most acute shortage of educational facilities will occur at the top — in colleges and universities.

Private institutions simply cannot hope to expand fast enough within the limits of voluntary donations to keep abreast of the spectacular expansions planned by tax-supported schools.

But even though the private schools have no wish to grow at the expense of their quality of teaching, they realize they must support a less spectacular growth or be swamped by the competition of state-subsidized rivals offering low tuition rates.

Therefore in New York they have tried to get in the first blow by proposing a program of state financial help to offset elaborate plans for expanding state-supported schools—starting with a $250 million bond issue to enlarge the state university. This has earned them the biting wrath of the president of the state university, who says their idea is unsound, unwarranted and unthinkable.

The fact is it is fully warranted. New York taxpayers should not be expected to pay out hundreds of millions of dollars to support an enormously-expanded system of public education until the possibilities of using the potentialities of semi-public education have been examined. Taxpayers are not going to relish the possibility of being wiped out in the collegiate gulch.

Surrender Of Rights

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Local Authority Abdicated To Federal Judge

David Lawrence

What's happened to the government of the State of Tennessee and its governor? Is it still a state in the Union or has it abdicated entirely to the federal government?

Has it given up its exclusive right under the Constitution to maintain law and order, to insist on trial by jury, and to punish through its own state courts all criminal cases of assault and battery and threats to the safety of an individual?

These questions are startling in themselves but no less so than the spectacle of a county attorney standing up before an assembly in an American high school and telling the faculty that they must become informers to America's federal police, the FBI and that there are "no limits" to the federal injunction which, he says, the students and parents must obey whether it relates to conduct inside or outside the school building.

THIS EXTRAORDINARY proceeding can best be understood by quoting passages from the speech of Eugene Joyce, prosecuting attorney for Anderson County, Tenn., at an assembly of students in the Clinton High School on Monday morning of this week. He said: "I am here this morning in my official capacity as county attorney for Anderson County. In that capacity I have been asked and directed by the Board of Education of this county to come before you and tell you what the Board of Education and what the faculty of this school expects of you in the future. It is not my intention to tell you what to think in the future nor is it my intention to tell you what to believe in the future but it is my duty to tell you how to act in the future so long as you remain students at Clinton High School."

Mr. Joyce went on to say that recently "several acts of misconduct have gone unpunished" but that from now on they would be "dealt with severely and swiftly."

"The Board (of Education) has directed the faculty to not only institute procedures through Mr. Brittain (the principal) to expel any student that is guilty of misconduct but they have also instructed the faculty to pass on to the Federal Bureau of Investigation any actions on behalf of the students that might be construed as violative of the injunction."

Incidentally, a decision of two U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals judges and a district judge in South Carolina last year said that, while the Supreme Court ordered desegregation, it did not "require" integration.

By opening the school to all races, the board of education complied with the court's requirement.

Christmas being the time of year when kissers declare open season on everybody they can catch and corner, it again becomes a question how kissing ever was admitted to social practice.

This is not intended to cast doubt on such pleasant forms of kissing as baby-kissing and girl-and-boy kissing, which are popular and here to stay.

Nor is it intended to question man-and-wife kissing, which can be a gesture of affection, good will and sympathetic understanding.

But how in the name of every thing seemingly and sanely did the idea take root that perfunctory kissing should be encouraged?

This is the purse-and-peck kind practiced among females and relatives, in lieu of handshaking and a cordial, "Hello, chump. What rock you been hiding under lately?"

This column has pointed out before that it was this kind of osculatory onslaught by aunts and cousins that instilled a horror of kissing which has lasted since childhood.

Every family gathering was an excuse for harried and harpies to swoop down on little Truman, bless his nearsighted eyes, and maul him like an oyster found without warning in a turkey stuffing.

Besides the smooching, which was badly aimed and over-moist, there was the billing and the cooing.

They were not that glad to see an anemic little punk who was not glad in the least to see them, except the two good-looking ones. It was money and it still is — the billing and cooing.

Yet it had to be endured with a modicum of grace. There was no defense against the pawing and mauling that bent little Truman's glasses, knocked his little pivot tooth awry, mussed his hair, twisted his neckie askew and left him reeking with face powder and cologne.

It was such a horrible experience that the little fellow ran outside and hid in the bushes the first time postoffice was mentioned at a teen-age party: he thought he was going to be kissed by the mothers prese.

The conduct of individual citizens thereafter is really a state problem.

MR. JOYCE, however, read to the school children the full text of the federal injunction, which calls for compulsory integration. He interpreted the meaning of the federal injunction as follows:

"Questions have been asked of me and other law enforcement officials as to the enforceability of this injunction. I think the actions of the past few weeks or the past few days particularly speak in unmistakable language that this injunction is enforceable."

"The other ones on so frequently asked is 'Will this injunction apply to students under 21 or to acts inside the high school building? The answer is that this injunction has no limits. It applies to everyone, everywhere, be they minors, adults, inside or outside any building in this county."

"To my knowledge in all of American history it has never been necessary to read an instrument such as this, a federal injunction, before an especially called assembly of a student body."

The implications of this history-shattering precedent can be far-reaching.

IT COULD MEAN that the word of a single federal judge becomes law to the school children and their parents. For they are not told it can be appealed and reversed in a higher court.

They are not told that anyone violating it will be deprived of his constitutional right to trial by jury.

They are not told that contempt charges have been applied heretofore primarily to acts committed in a courtroom or with respect to property seized by an individual which he may be forced to bring to a courtroom.

The idea that a federal injunction has "no limits" and that it can punish anybody, even outside the courtroom, for speaking or urging a course of action that a federal judge may not like, means that the bill of rights — which guarantees free speech, free assembly and trial by jury — has been torn to bits in Anderson County, Tenn.

IT MEANS also that the State of Tennessee and the County of Anderson, which have the primary duty to enforce law and order, have given way to a superior power — a federal judge's arbitrary action.

It is a tragic day in American history and one wonders why the so-called "liberals" are silent and why there have been no protests from the civil liberty organizations that are so active when Communist sympathizers get involved in "thought control" proceedings.

Instead, there is almost total indifference to what's happening to constitutional rights and obligations in the State of Tennessee.

Purely Perfunctory

By TRUMAN TWILL

Christmas being the time of year when kissers declare open season on everybody they can catch and corner, it again becomes a question how kissing ever was admitted to social practice.

This is not intended to cast doubt on such pleasant forms of kissing as baby-kissing and girl-and-boy kissing, which are popular and here to stay.

Nor is it intended to question man-and-wife kissing, which can be a gesture of affection, good will and sympathetic understanding.

But how in the name of every thing seemingly and sanely did the idea take root that perfunctory kissing should be encouraged?

This column has pointed out before that it was this kind of osculatory onslaught by aunts and cousins that instilled a horror of kissing which has lasted since childhood.

Every family gathering was an excuse for harried and harpies to swoop down on little Truman, bless his nearsighted eyes, and maul him like an oyster found without warning in a turkey stuffing.

Besides the smooching, which was badly aimed and over-moist, there was the billing and the cooing.

They were not that glad to see an anemic little punk who was not glad in the least to see them, except the two good-looking ones. It was money and it still is — the billing and cooing.

Yet it had to be endured with a modicum of grace. There was no defense against the pawing and mauling that bent little Truman's glasses, knocked his little pivot tooth awry, mussed his hair, twisted his neckie askew and left him reeking with face powder and cologne.

It was such a horrible experience that the little fellow ran outside and hid in the bushes the first time postoffice was mentioned at a teen-age party: he thought he was going to be kissed by the mothers prese.

Be it said to his credit that he endured it with no more than a modicum of grace. A modicum is less than a tsp — about the same as a pinch. Grace was the name of the lovely girl who became Big Brother's fiancée and took to family kissing the way a fish takes to water.

She made kissing seem to be almost nice. . . .

What was it they used to say. . . something about every man to his taste, as the old woman said when she kissed the pig? Something like that.

Grace and little Truman were getting along fine until the engagement was broken off.

Success doesn't come to the fellow who hasn't much get-up in the morning.

The Old Reliable Safety Mar

U.S. Reds Sound Death Knell

By JAY G. HAYDEN

WASHINGTON
The final requiem for the Communist party of the United States may have been sounded when its executive committee published a 5,000-word proposal for constitutional revision, designed to turn itself Titoist or something other than a "puppet of Soviet Russia."

The latter phrase was advanced by the U. S. Subversive Activities Control Board in 1953 as reason why the Communist party should be required to register as agent of a foreign government.

Ever since that decree the party has seemed to be sinking steadily toward oblivion but the crowning incident to that end no doubt was the Soviet's use of force in an effort to smash the revolt in little Hungary. Since the beginning of that development, the party roster, rated by its own statement last September at something less than 25,000, is said to have been evaporating by "hundreds."

In the November issue of Political Affairs, John Gates, editor of the New York Daily Worker, wrote that the party has lost members and influence and had become "isolated almost entirely from the labor movement, the Negro people and the farmers."

LAST NOV. 21 the Worker branded the decision of the Hungarian government to call in Soviet troops "a tragic error for which the Soviet Union must also take responsibility."

The key declaration of the now proposed constitutional revision is that "a common bond," among workers of all lands is "strengthened when working class movements operate in an atmosphere of independence and equality and exercise the right of fraternal and constructive criticism."

And again: "In the struggle for socialism the Communist party seeks no narrow partisan monopoly. It fights side by side with all who struggle for socialism and seeks to cooperate with all socialist-minded Americans to achieve socialism."

The first of these statements definitely mimics Tito of Yugoslavia and Gomulka of Poland and the second goes even farther by reaching out even for the socialism of Norman Thomas, which Communists always heretofore reprobated as the chief stooge of Wall Street.

Judged solely by election returns, the U. S. Communist party has never amounted to very much.

ITS PEAK VOTE nationally was 102,991 for William Z. Foster, its presidential nominee in 1932, in the pit of the great depression. The winner in that voting was Franklin D. Roosevelt with 22,821,857 votes and the runner-up Herbert Hoover, with 15,761,841.

In 1928 Mr. Foster polled 48,778 votes and in 1936, Earl Browder, the last Communist presidential candidate, 80,181.

Those figures by no means measure the extent of Communist influence, chiefly for the reason that President Roosevelt contrived to take the bulk of that party and its fellow travelers over through-out his presidency.

His chief device to that end was the American Labor party in New York State which elected Vito Marcantonio to Congress for five terms, 1939-49.

Even after the liberal party group split away on the ground that the parent body was Communist-dominated, the American Labor party piled up 501,167 in New York State for Henry Wallace for president in 1948.

THAT WAS THE YEAR also when Whittaker Chambers confessed to having acted as a Communist spy, funneling State Department secrets to Russia, with the effect of landing Alger Hiss, a former high State Department official, in prison.

Besides the conviction of Hiss, Chambers' confession contributed to the prosecution of Eugene Dennis, national secretary and 10 other leading functionaries of the Communist party, for conspiracy to teach and advocate overthrow of the U. S. government.

That decision, first handed down by Judge Harold R. Medina of New York, was sustained by the Supreme Court in 1951, by vote of 6 to 2.

At the time of the latter decision FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said:

"All that remains of the Communist party above ground is a self-constituted core, which for appearance sake maintains a public contact. The party itself has not issued membership cards for some three years. Membership records no longer exist."

Reuther Primes Program

By MARTIN ARUNDEL

NEW YORK
United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther, the recent election's most controversial labor politician, evidently intends to abide by his often expressed precept: "Not less political action but more political action on the part of the American labor movement."

The auto union chief's latest political ventures apparently are intended to pressure incoming congressmen, many of whom he helped elect, into enacting legislation he says "will benefit all Americans."

High on Mr. Reuther's agenda for Congress, labor sources reported today, are these projects: 1. Abolition of the Senate rule which permits filibusters. Achievement of this, Mr. Reuther says, would be the biggest step toward passage of federal civil rights laws, which he has long advocated.

2. A "searching congressional investigation" into the relationship between wages, prices and profits in the U. S. economy.

In a letter to President Eisenhower last week, asking his support for the inquiry, Mr. Reuther blamed inflation on the "profits of America's giant corporations."

3. Repeal — or drastic revision — of the Taft-Hartley Act. Mr. Reuther as well as other top labor leaders especially want section 14B of the law stricken. This clause gives states the right to enact labor laws that have legal precedent over similar federal statutes. These so-called "right-to-work laws," now in force in 17 states, prohibit the union shop and other union security measures.

4. Raising the $1-an-hour minimum wage, which was enacted by the last session of Congress. The November issue of Economic Trends and Outlook, monthly newsletter of the AFL-CIO economic policy committee, which Mr. Reuther heads, insists that the minimum should be at least $2.20 an hour. Present average factory wage is $2 an hour.

5. Banning of H-bomb tests. Mr. Reuther and like-minded AFL-CIO bigwigs expect to start a campaign as soon as Congress convenes to get both houses to petition the President to "stop H-bomb tests now."

Mr. Reuther has already thrown the full weight of the UAW propaganda machine, which is considered the best in the business, behind his proposals. He is using his great influence in the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE) and also is understood to be urging the AFL-CIO high command to actively support them.

Mr. Reuther likely will get full cooperation from the "one big union" brass on his Taft-Hartley and minimum wage suggestions. But it is doubtful if they'll give more than verbal endorsement to the civil rights and H-bomb ideas.

On the other side of the fence, the National Association of Manufacturers, last week, urged passage of stricter federal laws to curb the political activities of union bigwigs. Mr. Reuther was accused of illegally siphoning money from union treasuries for use in an attempt to seize control of the Democratic party and turn it into a vehicle to promote socialism in the U. S.

So They Say

The exchange of Christmas cards between personnel on duty with the Department of the Army is considered unnecessary since greetings can be exchanged personally. The exchange of cards will be discouraged. — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff.

Our plans for useful old age are going haywire. . . . Like many others in their 70's . . . I am in danger of living longer than I can afford to live. — Britain's Lord Beveridge, 77, "father of the welfare state," complaining that inflation is eating up his savings.

I am fearful that by limiting our intake of Hungarian refugees to those whom we deem eligible to settle permanently in the United States, we are making a mistake. — Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.)

When you think of the billions that we have spent abroad to prevent our own atomic annihilation, it seems folly to deny a comparatively small sum to the very service which is working best to prevent it. — Clare Boothe Luce urges more money for U. S. Foreign Service.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Enough Is Enough

From the isolation booth of a fanciful political $64,000 Question program. Adlai Stevenson has answered, "I'll quit at this point" to the question, "Do you want to stop or go home for four years and think it over?"

This is a smarter utterance than some of those made by him when running last time out. Any man who has been through the ordeals of two campaigns for the presidency has certainly realized he has "had it."

IN FACT IN SUCH an experience a man has done his bit for democracy and his country, and to ask him to do it three times is to call for bravery beyond the call of duty.

Campaigns get tougher and tougher and we think any two-time candidate deserves to be compensated in some way for the wear and tear, possibly through an insurance policy protecting him in case of nervous collapses, fallen arches, train bruises, rough airplane trips and distress due to all those terrible half-broiled chickens with green peas and mystery desserts at political banquets.

In simple justice a defeated candidate should, after a second run, be decorated for valor in baby kissing and handshaking.

And there should be public exercises all over the country by friend and foe in simple appreciation of what a defeated candidate goes through, with or without a hole in his shoe.

HE IS ENTITLED to a two-year guarantee against being asked to make a speech, dig up a new joke, drink a demitasse, pose for photographs or say under any circumstances anywhere. "I want to say I am happy to be back in this wonderful community again," a statement which makes a liar out of any presidential candidate in seven out of ten appearances.

Running for office takes a lot out of any man, however rugged. Compared to the tests he has to endure, the fellow who joins the Foreign Legion, enters the Olympics, paints his own house or decides to play professional ice hockey is a coward and a shirker.

William Jennings Bryan and Grover Cleveland ran three times, but in those days life was more restful, the pace was not terrific, the shrimp cocktail before dinner hadn't become a routine obligation and the banquet soup was tastier.

It's tougher now. Adlai Stevenson "seen his duty and did it" twice. Greater fortitude hath no man.

DENTISTS IN CONVENTION recently announced a high speed ultrasonic turbine-jet drill, capable of 45,000 revolutions instead of 5,000 per minute. . . . Okay, but when we want a tooth filled, doc, we want a dentist not a space cadet. (Who's complaining that dentists' drills are too slow?) . . . As an especially nervous man in a dental office, we warn all dentists that turbine-jet drills that we are developing turbine-jet running-shoes for use between the waiting room and the chair.

The skipper of one of the liners in the year's worst sea tragedy when asked in the inquiry, "Don't you think high speed in that area dangerous?" replied, "No, because my ship had tremendous backing power." . . . And to, "Do you consider it good seamanship doing eighteen knots with two or three miles visibility without blowing your foghorn?" his reply was also in the affirmative. . . . Omigosh!

Congress is to investigate the crash this winter and it is expected to put special emphasis on the reason why an international agreement and Coast Guard recommendations that great liners use distinct sea lanes, keeping them miles apart, was so easily ignored by some steamship lines and countries.

NEW YORK IS TO HAVE a full time public school for adults. . . . The idea is to keep them from roaming around the streets and becoming a problem to the kids.

Traditions Shattered, Lives Altered On Red China's Farms

Editor's Note — David Lancashire spent six weeks in Communist China and toured over 5,500 miles. He is a Canadian reporter.

By DAVID LANCASHIRE
PEIPING — Lu Ku is a shabby, mud-walled village outside Peiping which looks as though it has not changed in the last thousand years.

But behind the sunbaked walls on the unpaved street where the mule carts raise a cloud of brown dust, lives have been altered and traditions shattered.

Now a propaganda poster is pasted to the wall of the outdoor latrine. There are telephone wires over the street and a red star over the door of the meeting hall.

Lu Ku is the center of the Sino-Soviet Friendship Agricultural Cooperative. It is a sample of the socialization which has transformed the lives of 108 million families in China and, to all appearances, brought them above the minimum subsistence level that has haunted the Chinese peasant 5,000 years.

Now a family in Lu Ku, by hand-tilling the soil seven days a week for eight months and working with a mule cart on construction projects for the other four, can earn the equivalent of $222 in a good year. Even in China this is not much money. But it is more than the peasants of Lu Ku have ever had before.

Without benefit of machinery, workers from the 10 villages which comprise the sprawling communal farm have by official account increased production from the time-worn soil by 600 per cent since socialization.

St. Jacob's Cantata Set For Sunday

The Sino-Soviet is a thriving establishment of 1,504 families seven miles from the heart of Peiping. Lu Ku is the administrative center of the farm, which began in 1951 when 180 families pooled their labor under the rulebook guidance of a staff of Communist cadres sent from Peiping.

Over tea, cigarettes and wet peanuts pulled from the farm's humus-fertilized soil, a director named Kuo Chen told of the cooperative's development. His practiced, sing-song recitation never hesitated for a fact or statistic. Kuo Chen has told the same story many times to many visitors.

Landlords were dispossessed and land redistributed on a common standard among the peasants in 1950. In 1951, said Kuo Chen, the village families formed mutual aid teams of five families each, retaining their own portions of land but working together on them.

The following year, mutual aid teams grew to 23, production increased and a semisocialist cooperative was formed, with peasants pooling their land and being paid for land and labor contributed.

Then the 10 surrounding villages combined into one advanced co-op of 15,000 mou (about 5,000 acres). All land animals and equipment were pooled into common ownership, and members were paid only for labor contributed.

Kuo Chen was asked what happened to the landlords who once owned the village.

"The landlords and the rich peasants (the interpreter used the word 'kulaks') are now in the cooperative," he replied.

"With equal privileges?"

"Oh, no. They're third-class comrades."

Second and third class co-op members have no voting rights in community matters, and are paid on a salary basis. A second-class comrade is a candidate member while a third-class is one who still opposes the movement theoretically, but works on the farm nevertheless. The director claimed they received the same salary as full members.

The gigantic Casa Loma in Toronto was built by the late Sir Henry Pellat as a gift to his bride. The castle is linked to all outlying buildings by underground passages.

St. Jacob's Choir will present a cantata Sunday at 8 p.m. in St. Jacob's Church. "The Christmas Song of Songs," by Ira B. Wilson.

The selections are: "Praise Be To God," by the entire choir; "In a Manger," an alto solo by Miss Barbara Jones; "There Were Shepherds," tenor solo, Thomas Crawford; "Glory to God," choir; "There Came Wise Men," bass solo featuring Ralph Cook, a men's chorus and the choir.

"Where is He?" a soprano solo, Mrs. John Schmaier; "Incense, Myrrh and Gold," duet, Mr. and Mrs. Kimsey Bell, the women's chorus and the choir.

"We Have Seen His Star," choir. Mrs. Homer McPherson is choir director and Mrs. Richard Tullis is the organist.

Face Life In Prison In Fatal Shooting

DAYTON, Ohio — Lee Bryant, 43, faces life imprisonment after a Montgomery County Common Pleas Court jury found him guilty of first degree murder Thursday. The jury recommended mercy, sparing Bryant from the electric chair.

Judge Robert U. Martin probably will sentence Bryant Monday, Prosecutor Mathias H. Heck said.

Bryant was tried for the shooting of Thomas Barner, 33, in a Dayton tavern Aug. 20. He testified he shot Barner in self-defense. Barner's friend, Donald E. Strait, 27, told the jury he thought the shot was meant for himself.

The prosecution said Bryant killed Barner after an argument with Strait over a $10 baseball bet.

Bryant heard the verdict without displaying emotion. He asked to address the jury, but Judge Martin dismissed the court without granting the request.

Quakers To Face Columbian In Cage Tilt There Tonight

Both Teams Will Be After Second Victory Of Season

Mount Faces Wittenberg, Travels East

ALLIANCE — Mount Union College starts a busy five days tonight as the Raiders will be playing four games in that span.

Tonight the Raiders entertain Wittenberg College in an important Ohio Conference tilt. Winners of their two games this year and sporting an 11-game win streak, the Raiders won their only loop out of the season from Kenyon while Wittenberg, with a loss to Miami, has topped both of its Conference appearances.

Sunday morning Mount leaves for an eastern jaunt that finds the Raiders playing the University of Baltimore on Monday, American University on Tuesday, and Maryland State Teachers at Frostburg on Wednesday.

It continues to become apparent that this year's Mount case squad has one of the best balanced starting fives in recent years. Every member of the first quintet is averaging in the double figures.

In two contests 6-4 junior forward Don "Goose" Talbert has 38 points, sophomore Bill Roof and captain Bruce Humphrey each have 30 markers, sophomore Charles Kemp has hit for 23, and second semester freshman letterman Harry Baird has added 22 points.

The Raiders by staying to their expected slow, deliberate brand of ball have meshed 62 of 113 action shots for a 53 per cent accuracy. Mount has totaled 155 points in two games while limiting opponents to 115 as it seems more probable that the Raiders will again rank high in the nation's small college defense column.

Indians Baseball Schedule Released

CLEVELAND — The New York Yankees and Baltimore will appear in six night games each against the Cleveland Indians, as part of the Tribe's home schedule of 31 night games in 1957.

With other teams in the league, the Indians will play four home contests at night, except for Kansas City, which will be here for only three.

The night schedule at home: April—26, Detroit; 30, Washington.

May — 3, Baltimore; 7 and 8, New York; 10, Kansas City; 24, Chicago.

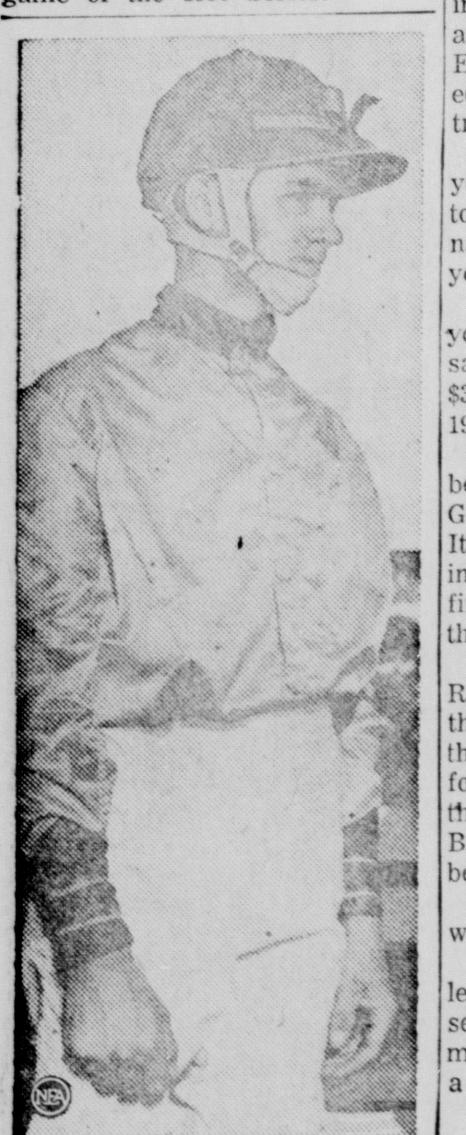

June—4 and 5, New York; 7, Washington; 11 and 12, Boston; 14, Baltimore.

Giants Seek Championship Saturday

PHILADELPHIA — The New York Giants, needing either a victory or a tie to win the Eastern Division championship of the National Football League, close the regular season Saturday against the puncheon Philadelphia Eagles.

Coach Jim Lee Howell's rugged aggregation carries a 7-3-1 record into this crucial game, a game ahead of the late-surgings Washington Redskins. If the Giants win or tie, it would eliminate the Redskins, who have two games left to play — one with the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday—and sport a 6-4 mark. Ties do not count in the NFL standings.

The Chicago Bears and the Detroit Lions meet in Chicago Sunday for the Western Division title. The Lions hold a half-game lead.

New York should win easily if the Philadelphia game runs true to form, something the NFL isn't exactly famous for. In the first meeting between the clubs, the Giants won 20-3, handling Coach Hugh Devore's "conservative" offense with little trouble. At that time the Eagles were near full strength. Saturday, the wingless Birds, resting in the Eastern Division cellar (3-7-1), will be lucky if they can field eight backs offensively and defensively. Their injury list is huge.

In other weekend games, the Chicago Cardinals play the Cleveland Browns at Cleveland, the Green Bay Packers meet the Baltimore Colts and the San Francisco 49ers tangle in the West. All three will be played Sunday.

Tebbetts Signs Redlegs Contract

CINCINNATI — Birdie Tebbetts, recently proclaimed manager of the year in baseball, still thinks he is a "young, inexperienced manager."

The Cincinnati Redlegs field chief, who is 45, said this Thursday night he accepted a "Man of the Year" award from the Cincinnati Exchange Club.

And he added, "If Gabe Paul (general manager) keeps renewing my contract, I'll end up being an old experienced manager." Earlier in the day, Paul had signed Tebbetts to a three-year contract at more pay.

Tebbetts said he had "a good, young team" which should be able to capture a National League pennant "within the next three years."

Tebbetts' old contract had a year to run. The new one, with a salary estimated at approximately $35,000, will carry him through the 1959 season.

His present coaching staff has been signed for two more years. General Manager Paul announced. It consists of Tom Ferrick, pitching coach; Frank McCormick, at first base, and Jimmy Dykes at third base.

Tebbetts, who took over the Redlegs Sept. 29, 1953, brought them out of the second division this year and into a sustained bid for the pennant. They finished third, only two games behind the Brooklyn Dodgers and one game behind Milwaukee.

In announcing the new contract with Tebbetts, Paul said: "In the opinion of Powell Crosley Jr. (club president) and myself, Birdie is the outstanding manager in baseball. He has done a wonderful job here."

Top Cage Teams To Face Tests

Dons, Alabama Hold Unbeaten Records

By DON WEISS
The Associated Press

The word—or words—today for San Francisco and Alabama, holders of the two longest winning streaks in college basketball, might well be "Watch out!"

With the unbeaten continuing to drop out of line—Western Kentucky, Texas Christian and Xavier of Ohio are the latest—the time may be approaching for the Dons, winners of 59 straight, and 'Bama, which has won its last 20.

Both have a test coming up tonight, San Francisco and its all-time streak against Chicago Loyola in an invitational tournament at Chicago Stadium, and Alabama against unbeaten Duke in the opening program of the Birmingham Classic.

America's Olympic champion basketball team, led by former San Francisco ace Bill Russell and K. C. Jones, also is in the Chicago tournament and will play Santa Clara tonight.

Should the Dons and the Olympians advance to the finals Saturday night, as anticipated, San Francisco's streak will not be endangered since the Olympians aren't a college team.

Alabama, with a 106-point average and a No. 9 rating after four games, probably will have West Virginia to handle Saturday should it get past Duke tonight. The Mountaineers, with Rod Hundley, are heavily favored over Mississippi Southern in the other half of the Birmingham double-header.

Western Kentucky, rated 12th nationally, got its come-uppance from Seton Hall 73-69 in the second game of a double-header at New York's Madison Square Garden Thursday night after Georgetown had disposed of NYU 76-73 in an overtime opener.

The Western Hilltoppers, well below the form that enabled them to average 93 points in three previous games, stayed close to Seton Hall for only a half. Dick Gaines' 17 points led the Pirates' well-distributed scoring.

St. Louis, which drubbed Kentucky Monday night, chopped down another giant with its 90-81 over TCU, which had won its first four. A spring-legged sophomore named Cal Burnett triggered a rally that put the Billikens in control for good late in the first half. Xavier went through two overtime periods before surrendering its perfect record to Wichita 83-86. A Wichita sub, Cy Rosditcher, stole the ball in the backcourt and drove in for a layup to send the game into overtime tied at 74. It was 80-80 after the first extra period but Joe Stevens hit on two free throws at the start of the second overtime and Wichita pulled out to win handily.

Finsterwald Leads In Stanford Open

By F. T. MACFEELY
SANFORD, Fla. — Dow Finsterwald has shot only one round of competitive golf better than the 64 which put him out front in the $15,000 Sanford Open Thursday.

That was 61 at St. Louis in 1950 which at the time was the best ever made in a PGA tournament. Since then the national record has been lowered to 60 by five players: Wally Ulich, Bill Nary, Al Brosch, Ted Kroll and Tommy Bolt.

The way touring professionals took part to pieces in the first round of the 72-hole event, which runs through Sunday, caused several pros to predict someone will go Finsterwald one—or more—better.

He might himself. The 27-year-old golfer from Bedford Heights, Ohio, is at the peak of his game this year and is second among money winners with $23,000.

If hot, sunny weather continues most pros agree it will take a lower score than the 269 Al Balding won with a year ago to take $2,400 top prize. The 6,205-yard course is fast and in good shape. Par is 36-34-70.

Mike Fetchik of Mahopac, N.Y., was well on way to first place until he was caught in traps on the last two holes and took a 65—tied for second with Don January of Lampasas, Tex.; Bob Feller of Royal Oak, Mich., and Tommy Bolt of Houston, Tex.

Tied at 66 with five others was Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio.

MAY RETURN TO RING
BALTIMORE — Former heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano indicated Thursday night that the door is still open on a possible return to the ring.

Marciano, who retired undefeated earlier this year, reiterated his plan to stick to his decision of last April, when he stepped down from the ring.

But as to the future? "Right now I haven't changed my plans, but I have a lot of things to think over. You hear so many things . . ."

FIRST BASEMAN ROBINSON — Jackie Robinson, one of Brooklyn's greatest heroes, tries out his first baseman's mitt in his Stamford, Conn., home after learning he had been traded to the New York Giants. The Dodgers traded Jackie for pitcher Dick Littlefield and a bundle of cash estimated at $30,000. The Giants reportedly will play Robinson at first base, the position Jackie played in 1947 for the Dodgers when he became the first Negro to play in the major leagues.

Robinson 'Thinking Over' Idea Of Playing For Giants

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK — With Jackie Robinson playing for the New York Giants and Sal Maglie pitching for Brooklyn, the world is topsy turvy for New York area baseball fans. It's almost as confusing as the time Leo Durocher switched to the Giants.

Of course, Robinson may not play for the Giants, Jackie, who will be 33 Jan. 31, is taking a few days to "think it over" after Thursday's shocking news that he had been traded to the Giants for a reported $30,000 and Dick Littlefield, a left-handed pitcher who has been with eight other big league clubs.

Charles Feeney, Giants' vice president, says, "I'm confident that he'll play for us. He told me he was undecided on what he was going to do but would let us know as soon as he makes up his mind."

Robinson, reached by phone at his Stamford, Conn., home, obviously was dazed by the sudden turn of events. His young son Jackie Jr. even cried when he learned his dad no longer was a Dodger. "But we (Jackie and his wife) explained to him that baseball is like that," said Robinson.

Asked if he would continue to play or planned to retire, Robinson answered, "I really haven't had a chance to give it much thought. I want to get away for a few days, relax and think it over."

Since 1954 there have been recurring stories that Robinson was getting ready to hang up his spikes. He also has managerial ambitions.

"Naturally I'm disappointed to leave Brooklyn," said Robinson. "I've had wonderful years in Brooklyn, received wonderful treatment from the fans and made lasting friendships. They are a lot of nice guys. I hope they can win again — unless the Giants can win it."

Jackie now greying and considerably slower than in his early days when his base running dazzled the league, said he had "no hard feelings for the Brooklyn organization."

"The club has to protect itself," Robinson rationalized. "It had a lot of nice, young players. But I thought I helped the club last season and didn't figure I'd be traded. I had no inkling of it until Wednesday night when Buzzy (Brooklyn vice president Buzzy Bavasi) called me."

"But that's baseball. We have no control over it. It's all part of the game."

Robinson said he "didn't care" one way or the other about what position he played if he decided to continue his career with the Giants. Billy Rigney, Giants manager, already has assigned him to fill the first base job, vacated when Bill White went into the Army.

As Robinson, first Negro ever to make the majors, played first when he broke into the league in 1947, and has appeared there periodically ever since, he can handle the position.

FAITH RESTORED

COMPTON, Calif. — The faith of the Grand Rapids, Mich., Junior College football team in Southern California hospitality has been partially restored.

A thief took $800 from the players' lockers at Compton athletic field while they practiced for Saturday's game against Coffeyville, Kan.

Compton college students passed the hat, raised the $800, and turned it over to the team.

AL Breaks, Ties 47 Records

Herb Score Sets Strikeout Mark

CHICAGO — The American League went on a record-breaking spree last season by breaking or tying 47 records.

The league snapped 18 major league records and tied 11 more. In addition 10 American League marks were broken and 8 others were tied.

Cleveland lefthander Herb Score became the first pitcher in major league history to record more than 200 strikeouts in his first two years.

Score had 263 strikeouts last season, 18 more than his 245 in 1955 when he was voted Rookie of the Year.

The World Champion New York Yankees notched three major league marks in most pennants won by a club, 22; most years 100 or more home runs, 33; and most years leading in home runs, 31.

Yankee catcher Yogi Berra hit 30 home runs giving him a lifetime total of 238, most ever hit by a major league catcher.

Washington had the dubious distinction of setting a major mark of 877 strikeouts while Senator outfielder Jim Lemon fanned 138 times for another major record.

The league set a new record of 1,075 homers for one season, surpassing the old mark of 973 set in 1950.

Minnie Minofo of the Chicago White Sox was hit by pitchers 23 times for a new season record while the White Sox as a team were hit by pitchers 75 times for a major mark.

Kansas City pitchers set a major mark of 107 home runs allowed by one club and Bob Feller ran his total of walks allowed to 1,764 for another major high.

The Detroit Tigers tied the record for a fifth place team, having two 20 game winners with Frank Lary and Billy Hoft reaching that figure.

The Yankees led the league with a team slugging percentage of .434, followed by Detroit, Boston and Chicago.

In winning the American League pennant, the Yankees topped every club in the league in individual series with the exception of Detroit. The Tigers whipped the Yanks 12 times in 22 games.

Top Harness Racing Horse To Be Named

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Competition for harness racing's horse of the year was narrowed to a half dozen pacers and trotters Thursday in balloting sponsored by the U. S. Trotting Assn.

Top horse for 1956 will be tapped from one of these six divisional champions, named by a panel of 95 turf writers:

Hickory Smoke—two-year-old trotter.

Torpid—two-year-old pacer.

Nimble Colby — three-year-old trotter.

Noble Adios — three-year-old pacer.

Scott Frost—aged trotter.

Adios Harry—aged pacer.

Scott Frost, an overwhelming favorite in the aged trotting category with 87 of 92 votes, was the three-year-old trotter and horse of the year in 1955.

Adios Harry was named aged pacer of the year for the second time in a row, outpointing Dottie's Pick 57 1/2 to 27 1/2.

Hickory Smoke, favored to take year at Du Quoin, Ill., defeated Demon Rum 30 to 27 1/2 in the voting.

Torpid easily outdistanced the filly Good Counsel, 62 to 26. Torpid paced the mile in 1:58, fastest in history for a two-year-old.

Nimble Colby beat out The Intruder, 62 to 12, and Noble Adios received 45 votes to 26 for Belle Action.

Hickory Smoke is owned by L. B. Sheppard and A. C. Mudge of Hanover, Pa.; Torpid by Max Hochberg of Irvington, N. J.; Nimble Colby by Leo C. McNamara, Carmel, Ind.; Noble Adios by Paul Wixom, Chicago; Scott Frost by Saul Camp, Shafter, Calif., and Adios Harry by J. Howard Lyons, Greenwood, Del.

Grid Feats Are Cited In AP Survey

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK — Football is a game that thrives on the spectacular — long runs, sensational catches, shoe-string tackles — so it isn't surprising that there were almost as many "most spectacular" incidents mentioned in the annual Associated Press post-season survey as there were sports writers and broadcasters contributing to it.

But the ones most frequently mentioned were Abe Woodson's final touchdown run for Illinois against Michigan State, Dickie Lewis' 103-yard race for Maryland against North Carolina State, and the wild storm that hit the field at College Station, Tex., during the Texas Christian-Texas A&M game.

The Illinois-Michigan State game was one of the season's real thrillers. It was mentioned prominently in the balloting for the season's outstanding one-game performance by a team and Woodson's three touchdown scoring feat drew a good many votes as the outstanding individual performance.

The last of those touchdowns was the one that paid off for the Illini, who won only two games all season. Trailing and apparently beaten at half time, Illinois fought back to tie the score. Then with time running out and the goal 82 yards away, the Illini tried a screen pass.

Woodson, a hurdling champion and probably the fastest Illinois runner, took the pass, eluded a few tacklers, faked others out and finally leaped over the last defender as he went all the way for the winning touchdown, producing one of the biggest upsets of the season.

Lewis' run, like Woodson's, came in the closing minutes of the game for the winning score.

Altomare, Peet, Gallo Receive Awards At Leetonia Booster Club Grid Banquet

About 296 persons attended the annual Boosters Club banquet in the Leetonia High School gymnasium Thursday night in honor of the Leetonia High School football team and the coaching staff.

Right guard Lou Altomare received the most valuable player award; left tackle Rock Gallo received the most efficient back award.

The selection of award winners was made by the players.

Ben C. Alter, who was master of ceremonies, introduced Pat Mancuso, Leetonia head football coach, who led the Bears to the Class A state championship.

Culver Stewart introduced guest speaker Chuck Mather, former Leetonia coach now coaching at Kansas University. Mather spoke about his football career, declaring, "The greatest thing you get from football is mastering your instincts, being able to distinguish right from wrong."

He said encouragement by all parents, administration, and fans is a factor in a team's success.

Coach Mancuso, introduced the players, and commented on the team record last season. The Bears won seven, lost one and tied in another contest. Mancuso had high praise for the team.

Mancuso also introduced his assistant coaches, Bryon Bakewell, Virgil Roman and George Trombitas.

The coach complimented the administration, the band, cheerleaders and the Boosters Club for their work during the season.

He also introduced the following guest coaches: Jim Morgan, and Henry Miller of Louisville; Dan Campbell of Poland; Bill Marshall of Minerva; Earle Bruce, John Cabas, Karl Zellers and Vince Crawford of Salem; and Ralph Robinson of Youngstown Rayen.

Also introduced by the coach was next year's elected football captain Paul Morris.

Five members of the 1956 football team, the first team ever to play for Leetonia, attended. They are P. R. Rauch of Youngstown; Joseph B. Brennan of Cleveland; Henry A. Grace of Pittsburgh; Carl R. Shive, Columbia St., Leetonia; and Frank Aiken, 330 Ridge St., Leetonia.

Also in attendance were Jerry Belmont, assistant to Chuck Mather while he was coach at Leetonia; Miss Ann Topie, cheerleader coach; Karl Meinhardt, band director; Paul Conrad, and Paul Beaver, team doctors; and Leetonia basketball coach, Tony Knott.

Paul C. Hayes, superintendent of schools, congratulated the coaching staff and players on their season performance and complimented the faculty, principal, others involved in helping the team achieve record.

Dick Carney, Booster Club president, welcomed the guests, and Alter gave the invocation.

Ohioan Top Prospect At W. Va., Wesleyan

BUCKHANNON, W. Va. (AP)—Ken Remley, a freshman with a good attitude and altitude, is the best big basketball prospect Coach Hank Ellis has ever had at West Virginia Wesleyan.

Ellis, in his seventh year here, said the 6-foot-9 Remley was uncovered by a traveling salesman. The towering freshman center hails from Massillon, Ohio.

"He never played high school ball because he was on the frail side," Ellis said. "But he did fool around with independent basketball and that's where the traveling salesman saw him and then told us about him."

Wesleyan has been taking its lumps on the court this year, mainly because the first team is largely inexperienced.

The Bobcats have won four and lost three. The most notable victory was the 81-69 one over Morris Harvey. In that contest Remley grabbed 24 rebounds and scored 34 points.

Remley's physical appearance is along the lines of Mark Workman, former Charleston High and West Virginia ace, a 1952 All-America selection. The 23-year-old Wesleyan freshman weighs 190. He has been averaging around 15 points per game.

East Palestine Coach Gets Tri-County Award

The Tri-County League presented John Hogan, East Palestine football coach, with the Tri-County League championship trophy Thursday afternoon at the Lape Hotel.

Salem Tool rallied in the final period of their contest for 21 points but it was not enough to overcome a 60-42 third quarter deficit.

PINEVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Two men huddled by their dead companion for six hours Thursday awaiting aid after their single-engine airplane crashed on a mountaintop.

Dead was T. Sgt. John P. Lancaster. Airmen Robert Glover and Jessie R. Cox, a civilian employee of the Air Force, were injured. Their condition was not believed to be serious. They were hospitalized.

Sheriff J. I. West said it took him and several deputies nearly six hours to reach the men.

All three were from Groveport, Ohio. The two airmen were stationed at Lockbourne Air Force Base near Columbus.

Maj. Julius Keller, president of the Lockbourne Aero Club, said the three men rented a club-owned plane for a 10-day vacation in Florida.

Cause of the crash has not been determined.

Ohioan Sentenced On Income Tax Count

CINCINNATI (AP)—A federal judge Thursday said the United States would be "bankrupt" if its citizens followed the example of Preben F. D. Castonier.

Castonier, 58, a commercial artist, was convicted in Federal District Court of failing to file income tax returns on $56,000 income. A jury of 11 persons—the 12th suffered a fractured hip in a fall at noon—returned the verdict.

Judge John H. Druffel sentenced Castonier to two years in prison and fined him $20,000 but suspended one year of the prison term pending good behavior.

"By your own admission you were flying high," Judge Druffel told Castonier. "If everybody making as much money as you did failed to file income tax returns, the United States would be bankrupt."

Castonier's attorneys admitted he failed to file returns on $31,000 in 1953 and $25,000 in 1954. But they insisted he had no "evil intent."

SNAPPY WEATHER AHEAD—The headline warns Floridians of a new cold wave but this canny chihuahua is wearing his woolies and is ready for weatherman.

ROAD TO BEAUTY—A realignment of U. S. Highway 70 bisected the San Carlos Apache Indian reservation near Globe, Ariz. To commemorate the occasion, Velma Stevens was elected princess of the highway.

FLIGHT FOR FREEDOM—A Hungarian refugee and his wife arrive in London with their twin babies born on the day the fight for freedom began in Hungary.

A SCENE FOR SKIERS—Snow-covered branches frame this view at Alpine Meadows ski center near Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Center has runs of more than mile.

"GOOD OLD J. B."—This black cat became a "poo-poo" for three-year-old Kathy Huber of Nashota, Wis., when it snuggled into the turned-down hood of her jacket. Cat's name is Good Old J. B. (Jet Black).

FEEDING TIME FOR ALL?—While pigeons feed on scraps of food in a nearly deserted parking lot in New York, the alley cat in the foreground intends to feed on the pigeons. The feline-wise pigeons, however, flew out of old tabby's reach.

THAT ISN'T A SNOW BALL—Although this may look like a new species of faceless fowl, it actually is just a white pelican hiding his beak at the Milwaukee zoo.

REFUGEES IN FLOOD TIDE TO FREEDOM

MORE THAN 100,000 refugees have already streamed out of Soviet-blitzed Hungary into Austria in mass exodus almost without parallel in history. Unless the Communists seal off the border, the total will soon reach 200,000 refugees. Those are just statistics, though. The personal side of this "westward movement" can be seen in photos like these three—a pair of discarded muddy shoes, a starved girl and a baby unaware of sorrow that has blanketed her native land. These photos were taken at a farmhouse near the border. Owned by an Austrian nobleman, it is a relief station to care for the refugees moving across the border. Only members of the Order of Knights of Malta are permitted to work at the farm. They have kept its location secret for fear that the Russians would find out and close down the nearest border exit.

RAY OF SUNSHINE—Singer Johnnie Ray takes time out from engagements in London to visit a training school for deaf mutes. He brought prizes and gifts for kids. He is giving a piggy-back ride to little Eithne O'Callaghan during the party.

Hungry after her trek, she is enjoying bread and milk.

These shoes were thrown away when freedom came.

Too young to know, this refugee is safe from terror.

Nasser May Use Blocked Suez To Wreck Europe's Economy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Don't be surprised if Egyptian President Nasser uses the blocked-up Suez Canal either to try to wreck West Europe's economy or blackmail the United States into giving him economic help.

The Egyptian foreign minister, Mahmoud Fawzi, complained Thursday in Washington that he hears much in the United States about helping Britain and France, which attacked Egypt, but "hardly anything" about helping Egypt.

It has been estimated that clearing the canal—where about 50 ships were sunk during the British-French attack—will take from two months to six months if work gets under way quickly.

The longer the canal is closed, the longer the economy of U. S. allies in Western Europe will be affected. This serves Russia's interests. This country doesn't want its allies to slide downhill.

Egypt's economy also will suffer, the longer the canal is out of business, because of the loss of revenue from ships which used the canal.

Associated Press reports from Cairo says the Egyptian economy still looks stable. It's questionable how long it will remain so without the reopening of the canal or outside assistance.

The United States and Russia are the two places where Egypt might hope to get economic help. Fawzi said Egypt wants "no assistance" from the United States or Russia. That's a switch.

It should be remembered, in watching Nasser's maneuvers in the weeks ahead, that he was enraged and seized the canal last summer within a few days after Secretary of State Dulles called off a proposed big loan to Egypt.

The United Nations has undertaken — or thinks it has — the task of getting the sunken ships out of the canal. The U. N., which agreed this should be done quickly, chose a retired American army officer, Lt. Gen. Raymond A. Wheeler, to direct the canal operations.

But once British and French troops are all cleared out of the Suez area, there is no certainty Nasser will let the U. N. forces there lift a ship or a finger to clear the canal.

He might even demand that all the U. N. salvage experts and troops clear out of the area and go home. Egypt has never agreed the U. N. forces should stay around Suez any length of time after the British and French are gone.

Fawzi said in New York Dec. 2 the U. N. troops in Egypt "are not there to resolve the Palestine question or any other question" but "only so long as the crisis endures and as short a time as possible."

With the British and French gone, Nasser can try to suit himself about clearing the canal. If he stalls, the U. N. will have to consider the whole Egyptian problem all over again.

Tiny Tanya Is Reunited With Mother

LONDON (AP) — Tiny Tanya Chwastov—who was on her way to Russia two months ago—was reunited with her mother today and handed an American passport.

The brown-eyed girl, born in Philadelphia in July 1954 to alien parents who met in the United States, smiled as she was carried out of the U. S. Embassy in her mother's arms. Tanya clutched her doll, Nancy, in one hand—and a bright green American passport in the other.

Tanya, over whose custody her Russian-born father, Alexis Chwastov, and her mother, Mrs. Elena Dieczok, fought in a British court, will fly back to the U. S. tonight. Her mother, who now lives in Detroit, said they would go to Michigan to "enjoy the best Christmas ever."

A British judge ruled Thursday that Tanya should be brought up as an American. He ordered her returned to her mother, who had flown to Britain after Tanya was spirited out of the United States by her father and finally taken off a Soviet cargo ship in October as it was about to sail for Lenin-grad. The child was made a ward of the court.

The child had lived with her father at the Soviet Embassy since then.

Merger Movement Is Heading For Review By Justice Dept.

NEW YORK (AP) — The merger movement—booming along in its third great surge of the last 70 years of business history—is heading for court review today.

The urge of Bethlehem Steel and Youngstown Sheet and Tube to merge dramatizes the big question in the public mind: Is making a giant company out of two or more smaller ones a good or bad thing for the rest of us?

It is now up to the courts to decide whether this particular merger, one of the largest ever, would: 1. Tend to lessen competition in the steel industry, as the Department of Justice charges; or 2. Actually increase competition, as the companies contend, by putting them in a better position to challenge the industry's giant, U. S. Steel—which would still be the biggest.

Baby Kidnaper Sentenced To Death In Chair

MINEOLA, N. Y. (AP) — Angelo Lamacra, the kidnaper slayer of baby Peter Weinberger, today was sentenced to die in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair the week of January 28.

Nassau County Judge Mario Pitino passed the execution sentence, after rejecting a number of motions to set aside Lamacra's conviction.

He was convicted a week ago by a jury of 12 fathers of kidnapping and first degree murder. The verdict carried a mandatory death penalty.

Lamacra, 31-year-old mechanic and cab driver, kidnapped the Weinberger baby last July 4, and abandoned the 32-day-old infant to die in a thick fog of Long Island road.

In the spectators' seats, Lamacra's wife, his mother, father, and sister-in-law heard the sentence without any special show of emotion.

At his conviction last Friday, both his mother and wife fainted. An appeal from the death sentence is automatic.

Defense Atty. David Markowitz entered formal exception to the sentence after his several motions to overturn the verdict were turned down by the judge.

Markowitz argued the verdict was contrary to law, to facts, the weight of evidence, and that the judge erred in linking the kidnapping charge to murder.

The main defense argument was that Lamacra was insane at the time of the kidnapping, driven out of his mind by debts.

Yule Party Held For Children In Retarded School

The Salem Division of the Columbiana County Council for Retarded Children met Thursday night in Westminster House when plans were completed for a Christmas party held this afternoon for the children.

The Salem Republican Women's Club arranged the party and members of the Salem Garden Club were in attendance to present gifts. The Christmas tree in the school room was donated by the Lions Club and decorated by the Presby-Weds Class of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Gordon Bennett, teacher of the class for retarded children, last night related the progress of the students, who are transported daily free of charge by interested persons.

The group discussed the survey which is to be made after the first of the year by the League of Women Voters to determine the number of retarded and emotionally disturbed children in the county. These children will be privileged to attend the school for retarded children. If Salem's school increases in enrollment, state aid will be provided.

Anyone who has not yet received a request by letter from the council for aid may send his contribution to Retarded Children's Fund, care of the Farmers National Bank.

The next meeting of the Salem Division will be Jan. 10 at 8 p.m. in Westminster House. The next county meeting is scheduled Jan. 29 in Columbiana.

The school band and glee club presented a musical program of Christmas carols under the direction of John Glauner, music instructor, before the faculty and students on Tuesday.

Seventh graders will gather at the school Monday evening for their Christmas party, and ninth and tenth graders will celebrate Christmas with a party next Thursday evening at the school.

Santa Claus will visit grades one through six Friday afternoon, the final day of classes, when those grades will have individual parties in classrooms.

Ohio Railroads Seek Hike In Freight Rates

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Public hearing on an application by Ohio railroads for a seven per cent emergency increase in freight rates was postponed today by the state utilities commission until the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington rules on the application first.

The state commission set Dec. 20 as a tentative date for the resumption of the hearings, but they will be further postponed if the ICC has not acted by then.

The railroads presented part of their case at hearings here Thursday over the objections of attorneys representing shippers in a number of Ohio's industrial cities.

The attorneys argued that the seven per cent emergency increase should be consolidated with the railroad's application for a permanent 15 per cent increase, but the state commission ruled the increases were separate matters.

An ICC ruling on the permanent increase is expected in mid-March.

Findland's Former President Dies

HELSINKI, Finland — Juho Paasikivi, Finland's president from 1946 until last February, died today. He was 86.

Paasikivi had a long political career going back to pre-World War I days when Finland was still a part of Russia. When the Bolsheviks granted Finland independence, he served as the first premier.

The son of a businessman, he studied in Finland and Russia and later taught at Helsinki University. From 1914 to 1934 he was also head of a big commercial bank.

In 1944 he became premier again and was named president two years later to succeed the national hero, Field Marshal Carl Gustav Mannerheim. Four years later he was re-elected by the electoral college to an unprecedented second term.

Although Russia defeated Finland in the last war, Paasikivi had considerable influence with the Russians. Even Stalin apparently respected his abilities.

His death was due to a heart condition. He retired from the presidency at the end of his second term last February and was hospitalized late last month.

As president, Paasikivi pursued a good neighbor policy with Russia. He felt good relations should be maintained, but tried to keep from sacrificing Finnish liberties.

Soil Bank Program Supported by AFBF

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — Full support of the soil bank program and recommendations that rules for payments under the law be tightened up came today from the powerful American Farm Bureau Federation.

Delegates at the federation's 38th annual convention said late Thursday that support of the soil bank program next year and in the future "will depend upon the extent to which the Department of Agriculture and Congress resist pressures to convert the program into free crop insurance and disaster relief."

The Department of Agriculture, under the soil bank program, may pay farmers for underplanting government allotments of surplus crops.

Delegates urged directors of the 1,600,000-member federation to seek legislation for a corn program which they said numerous farmers wanted.

Speakers said 60 per cent of the farmers approved a corn program but this was short of the two-third majority required.

Directors were asked to study farm program laws and seek changes necessary to achieve our objective of gradually eliminating government regulation of individual farming operations as rapidly as possible.

The 1957 convention will be held in Chicago, where the federation meets every other year. President Charles B. Shuman of Sullivan, Ill., and other officers are in the middle of two-year terms.

Lawson surrendered to police Wednesday morning. He had been charged with felonious shooting. Allison had been employed by the auto dealer "off and on" during the past year.

Santa and the SECRET ROOM
by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

Synopsis: The sorcerer is seeking a magic powder which would transform everything it touches to gold. So far, however, he has managed to change people—including the king, Princess Anne and Santa Claus—into stone!

CHAPTER TEN

With Santa Claus and the king and the princess turned to stone I thought the world had come to an end.

I thought, I must get away from here and warn everyone in the kingdom. I pulled myself out of the snow and started to run. But that was a mistake because as soon as I moved I heard a shout

"Get that boy! Get that boy!" I turned and looked over my shoulder. There was the sorcerer standing at the palace door. He had put his mask back on so that he looked just like the king.

He waved his arms wildly. The sleepy palace guards sprang to attention and looked around in confusion. They didn't know who they were supposed to go after and while they were finding out I slipped under the palace wall.

Then I ran faster, I guess, than any boy ever ran before. Those guards never even got close to me though I could hear them shouting and running a long way behind.

Finally I got out of town and stumbled down the road that led to my home. Then I heard that old jingle, jangle and I knew the horse soldiers had been ordered to join the search.

I THOUGHT I WAS DONE for until I spied a giant oak tree standing near the road. I'm a good climber. It was easy for me to wiggle up that tree and in no time I was in the tip top branches.

I could see the horse soldiers coming. I thought, if they look up, they'll see me! But they never looked up. They weren't even galloping. They were walking along as though they had been riding for a long, long while and were tired out now.

When they were underneath the tree I could hear them talking. "We've searched every house and road in the kingdom. She's been taken out of the country and there's no use hunting through these roads anymore."

Then I knew they weren't looking for me but for Princess Anne. I wanted to shout down to them, "She's in the palace! She's turned to stone! Go look in the king's secret room!"

But I was afraid they would take me first to the man they believed

Army Reserve Sets Monday Open House

An intensive recruiting program is underway in Salem to interest youths in the Army Reserve program here.

An open house observance has been scheduled for Monday at the headquarters in the Salem Army Reserve Center on the Lisbon Rd.

Company G, 331st Infantry Regiment, is attempting to bring its unit up to full strength by enlisting men aged 17 to 18½ in the reserve program. Under that program, youth are required to spend only six months of active duty, and are assured of technical or specialist fields of their choice.

The recruiting program will continue throughout next week. Personnel will be on duty each day and Monday evenings from 7:30 to 10 at the armory.

CHURCH SESSION TO END

DAYTON, Ohio — The Evangelical United Brethren Church's annual council of administrators will end its annual two-day session here today.

The administrators, some 56 bishops and executives from throughout the United States and Canada, selected Harrisburg, Pa., as the site of the quadrennial meeting of the church's general conference Oct. 8-17, 1958.

I was in the tip top branches to be king. So I waited until they were gone. Then I slid down and ran to my home.

I WAS NEVER SO GLAD to see anything as I was that crooked old lane that led to my door. Before I could reach the porch the door flew open and all my seven brothers and seven sisters poured out.

"Alexander! Where have you been? You've had us worried half to death!"

They took me into the kitchen. They were all talking at once and hugging me and bawling me out.

I pushed them all off. I said, "Oh, the most awful thing has happened. The king has been turned to stone and so has Princess Anne and so has Santa Claus and all his reindeer!"

Their mouths dropped open and they stared at me.

"Oh, do something!" I cried. "There's someone in the palace pretending to be king. He's trying to turn everyone into gold. Oh, what can we do to stop him?"

My sister Amanda dropped on her knees beside me. "Don't worry Alexander. We'll make everything all right. Don't you worry at all."

Oh, thank heavens! I thought. Now all will be well. But even as I thought it my heart dropped to my shoes for Amanda turned to Thomas and cried: "Quickly, get a doctor! He's out of his head!"

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

There are those who feel that Harry Bridges should be beasty to Harry Bridges, although his power over our Pacific waters is such that we seem to need his written permission to use them peacefully.

Victor Riesel

In a show-down Harry Bridges could prove for a few days that he really owns the riparian rights in and around Hawaii — for if you got a boat out into the sea, you couldn't get it back into port if the old boy were having one of his irritated moments. There are mighty few docks there he couldn't close — except to the Pentagon of course. And even then, some of us wonder.

So it's worth the effort to make you feel beasty about Bridges. And you'll be interested in some testimony which might have escaped you after Judge Robert Morris, chief counsel for the Senate sub-committee on Internal Security, had summoned to the stand a prominent Hawaiian citizen by the name of Ronald Jamieson, a respected labor mediator.

THE SCENE was the Senate chamber in Honolulu's Iolani Palace, the territory's gubernatorial mansion the other week. The Senate sub-committee had been hearing testimony for a while when Mr. Jamieson told chief counsel Morris that he (Jamieson) had been the labor-management conciliator in the pineapple industry during a strike by the plantation division of Bridges' International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union.

It had been a costly strike with many negotiating sessions. After a while, in such marathons, there is much letting down of hair during the recesses. There was one such moment in this situation. It found Jamieson talking with one of the toughest of Bridges' crew, Louis Goldblatt, the union's secretary-treasurer.

Goldblatt was mighty proud of himself. His followers were being real tough. And why not? Goldblatt bragged that his strike committee, mostly from the Philippine Islands, were trained by the Huks.

NOW LET ME point out that the Huks were the violent, revolutionary, underground section of the Philippine Communist movement. They were rough. They took on the regular Philippine Army in a good sized war — and hundreds of lives were lost.

Now, back to Jamieson's sworn testimony, which is on the record for all to see. He said that Goldblatt, Bridges' personal brain-truster, then had said that they (Bridges' followers) would make ashes of one of the Hawaiian Islands. He referred by name to pretty Lanai, one of the eight major islands of our outpost, the "Pineapple Island."

The specific quote from Goldblatt as Mr. Jamieson put it was: "We're going to reduce Lanai to ashes... there will be more Lanais."

That's mighty tough talk and Judge Morris wanted to give Goldblatt the chance to speak for himself. But Brother Goldblatt, just wasn't available. Harry Bridges was and Bob Morris said publicly that he'd had a subpoena for Goldblatt and that Brother Bridges should have brought his lieutenant in. But he never showed up.

THERE WAS OTHER testimony involving the Number Two boy in Bridges' union, namely Goldblatt. Another witness reported under oath that Goldblatt had gone abroad some five years ago — to attend sessions of the Soviet's global labor network, the World Federation of Trade Unions. This WFTU has been described as "a conduit of espionage and sabotage" for the Soviet Union.

The WFTU, incidentally, recently backed up the Soviet Army's bloody battering of Hungary's workers in the streets of Budapest. But, back to Goldblatt's trip. It appears to have been more than fellow-traveling, according to the testimony in Hawaii. It was reported to the Senate sub-committee that Goldblatt stopped over in England — and that the British moved him out fast as an undesirable.

Now these are the type of men who lead the crowd which can turn the Pacific into a private lake. Beasty thought, isn't it? The Hall Syndicate

Winged Performance and a Floating Ride make The Big M the road-hungriest car ever built BIGGEST SIZE INCREASE IN THE INDUSTRY — Mercury is now over 17 1/2 feet long, more than 6 1/2 feet wide. Wheelbase is a big 122 inches. Inside there are inches more headroom, leg room — as much shoulder room, for example, as in many of the most expensive cars.

3-WAY POWER CHOICE

New 290-hp Turnpike Cruiser V-8
Wait till you feel its silk-and-dynamite performance! Compression ratio is a power-boosting 9.75 to 1. Displacement is a mile-shrinking 368 cubic inches. Torque is a mountain-hungry 405 lb-ft. Optional on all Montclair and Monterey.

New 255-hp Safety-Surge V-8 with Power-Booster Fan
This great new engine features a revolutionary Mercury "first" in the Montclair Series. The engine fan coasts when not needed for cooling. You save horsepower other cars waste. Engine sound is reduced, you enjoy a far quieter ride.

New 255-hp Safety-Surge V-8
Dream-car performance in the Monterey Series, Mercury's lowest priced line! Features another Mercury "first" which you get at no extra cost on all Big M engines for '57 — a Thermo-matic Carburetor. It automatically controls the temperature of the air the engine breathes — helps keep it uniform summer and winter. Engine starting is easier, usable power and economy are increased.

YEAR'S MOST IMPORTANT RIDE IMPROVEMENTS

Exclusive Full-Cushion Shock Absorbers — The first shock absorbers in the industry to give such amazing bump-smothering control on rough roads without sacrificing a soft, satin-smooth ride on average roads. They are teamed with Mercury's new improved springing action. Special high-speed valves built into the shock absorbers act as hydraulic cushions when there are rapid changes between bumps and ruts. Any bounce or rebound is controlled as if by a giant hand.

New Swept-Back Ball-Joint Front Suspension — Mercury introduces a new improved version of its famous suspension system — the finest, most advanced ball-joint front suspension on the market today. Because of the new swept-back design, the front wheels are now, in effect, pulled gently over bumps, rather than pushed into them. The benefits: easier handling, more responsive steering.

New balanced weight distribution greatly reduces nose dipping on sudden stops and lurching on fast starts. Mercury's extra weight, length, width, and wheelbase also add greatly to stability.

New road-hugging center of gravity — Everything is lower. Car height, passenger compartment, frame, and rear axle. You enjoy an amazing sense of "nailed-down" stability on curves.

You've got to feel Mercury's Floating Ride to believe it. We invite you to do just that, today, at our showroom.

CLEVELAND (UP)—A Cleveland man Thursday offered to give five lots and a farmhouse in New York State to any Hungarian refugee families who want them.

LITTLE LIZ

BUGS BUNNY

MARTHA WAYNE

By WILSON SCRUGGS

Top Salesman

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Nussbaum's mother didn't raise her boy to be a life insurance salesman.

He became one because at the time it seemed a better idea than starving. Today he thinks it's a wise mother who alerts her son early to the possibilities of financial success in the booming insurance field.

For Nussbaum feels that any young man who gets into the business now will ride the crest of a still-growing wave.

"In 1935 there was 95 billion dollars of life insurance in force," said Nussbaum, president of the National Assn. of Life Underwriters. "By 1945 it jumped to 151 billion, and last year to 372 billion."

"In another ten years it should reach anywhere between 750 billion and a trillion dollars."

Nussbaum's own career is an example of the success that can come to a man who stumbles into his natural vocation by chance.

He quit school at 12 in the city of his birth — Glasgow, Scotland — and took a job in his aunt's cloak factory.

"The job paid 60 cents a week, and it seemed a lot at the time," he said.

Three years later he came to America and became a clothing cutter. After serving in France during World War I, he began saving his money and bought into a Milwaukee store specializing in high-priced men's clothes.

In 1929 there occurred a notable business recession — some even called it a crash — and Nussbaum's income dried quickly from $10,000 a year to zero.

"I was offered a job selling insurance," he said, "and I took it very reluctantly."

"The first 25 weeks I earned $19.12—an average of 75 cents a week. These were really rough times. When a man said he couldn't afford to buy insurance, he was telling the truth. But I stuck to it."

His income rose steadily. Since 1942 he has been a member of the select "million dollar round table," made up of salesmen who sell that much insurance in a year. He earns up to $50,000 a year but is prouder of the fact that, despite his lack of formal schooling, he is a faculty adviser at Purdue University's Institute of Life Insurance Marketing.

Nussbaum says the public has a number of misconceptions about life insurance salesmen.

"You don't have to put your foot in a door to sell insurance," he said. "Women in particular are well-educated on the value of insurance, especially since we began emphasizing its living benefits rather than its death benefits. 'And you don't have to be a joiner.'"

Nussbaum himself belongs to only two organizations—the professional organization he heads and the American Legion.

Hanoverton Pedro Club Has Meeting

Several members from here attended installations of Alliance, Sebring, East Palestine and Lisbon chapters, Orders of the Eastern Stars.

The Merry Matrons Club will hold their Christmas party at Heck's Restaurant, Columbus a. Dec. 20.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Chester Conser. The ladies quilted during the day.

side visited Saturday with Mr. Garside, sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Raffle of Akron. Mrs. Raffle had been seriously ill in an Akron Hospital but is improving now at her home.

'Life' Photographer Missing In Hungary

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The U.S. Embassy here said Thursday Mrs. Georgette Meyer "Dicky" Chapelle, an American photographer whose work appears in Life Magazine, is missing in Hungary.

Austrian authorities have been asked to look into her disappearance, since she was last seen in Vienna.

Doctor Says Ike's Rest 'Beneficial'

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower's doctor said Thursday the chief executive's 2½-week stay here has been "very beneficial" to him.

The physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, sent that word to newsmen. Ike arrived Nov. 26 for a vacation combined with work. He flew to Washington Thursday.

The word from Snyder was relayed by White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty.

"I talked to the doctor," Hagerty reported, "and he said he thought the time the president has spent here has been very beneficial to him."

Eisenhower has played golf every day but one since he arrived.

MAKES HISTORY — Mrs. Roberta Westwood, 27-year-old Chicago housewife, helped make medical history at Edgewater Hospital when she had a thyroid gland operation. She was the first woman in medical annals to undergo a major operation under hypnosis, without anesthesia. She said she felt no pain and immediately after the surgery she sat up on the operating table and asked for a glass of water.
